

PUBLIC LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY. THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1897.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

Artistic Footwear!

If you will take a peep into our shoe window you will see that we made our promise good when we said our Shoes will be as good as our Clothing. We are now prepared to show you

The Best Line of MEN'S SHOES

In the State!

Every pair we sell you WE WARRANT to wear well. If they don't we give you another pair.

Next week the Maysville Fair, under its new management, will be in order. We will try to make it as pleasant for visitors as we know how. We always had a weakness for treating Fair visitors fair.

Come and see us; we will take care of your parcels, packages, etc.

Incidental.

If you so desire we will show you the prettiest line of

Clothing, Shirts, Hats, Shoes

In the country. Our prices—well, see the goods. The prices are all right.

HECHINGER & CO.

There was a slight sprinkle in that part of the city West of Wall street about 12:30 yesterday. This shows that it rains on the just—as well as the unjust.

Mrs. L. V. Davis will in a few days be located in her new store, Kackley Building next door to George Cox & Son, with the most superb stock of Millinery ever shown in Maysville.

'Squire William H. Hook is a candidate for re-election as Magistrate in the Eighth Magisterial District. Heretofore, 'Squire Hook has given the best attention to his duties and has always been found at his post when needed.

THE LEDGER today presents the name of Mr. James Stewart as a candidate for City Assessor at the ensuing November election. Mr. Stewart has been a lifelong citizen, an industrious man and if elected will make a good officer.

Among the many who attended the funeral of Mr. H. H. Collins yesterday afternoon was the venerable W. W. Lamar of Aurora, Ind., now in his 87th year, and for whom Mr. Collins clerked in the drygoods business soon after coming to Maysville, more than forty years ago.

The funeral of the late H. H. Collins was largely attended yesterday afternoon, the religious services consisting of a brief but eloquent tribute from the Rev. Dr. John S. Hays. At the grave the impressive Masonic rites were conducted by the venerable William N. Howe.

The Darby Burner is now placed in a stove at No. 17 Second street. It is the most wonderful invention of the age. Come tomorrow and eat some of the bread cooked by the heat from this Burner. No dirt but all the heat you want at less expense than any other fuel.

I. M. LANE & CO.

A hot show as applied to Colonel Fremont's aggregation of talent now about ready to open the season of '97-'98 does not mean that you will fare at its hands as by the weather, but it means so much fun, wit, singing, charm and delight bound together so that you will laugh until the sweat pours off of you. That's why it's called a hot show. Go Monday night to Opera house and see them in the "Old Soldier." New songs, new jokes, a continuous performance from start to finish. 10, 20 and 30 cents.

GETS A BLACK EYE!

Judge Cox Deals the Civil Service Law a Body-Blow!

WILL HAVE TO BE A NEW DEAL.

Judge Cox of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia dismissed the bill of complaint of John G. Wood, Superintendent of Mails at Louisville, praying that Postmaster General Gary and Assistant Postmaster General Heath be enjoined from removing him from office.

The case has been considered in the nature of a test of the power of removal, and the delivery of the opinion drew to the Courtroom many public officials, including members of the Civil Service Commission.

Judge Cox's decision was an elaborate review of the law bearing on removals of Federal employees. He held at the outset that it was not within the power of a Court of equity to grant relief in matters of appointment and removal from office.

Then, taking up the merits of the case, he stated that it was settled law that the power of removal was an incident to the power of appointment, and that both could be exercised by the head of a Department in reference to subordinate officials. Concerning the Civil Service Law, Judge Cox held that it must not be construed to grant authority, either to the Civil Service Commission or to the President, to make rules contrary to the law itself, or of a legislative character. He quoted with approval the decision of Justice Brewer that Congress could not delegate its power to legislate to any administrative body. The decision sums up as follows:

"The simple inquiry is whether the rules invoked by the complainant, whether the President or the Commission or both be the authors of them, are such as the Civil Service Act authorized to be established. In my judgment they are ultra vires and void. I have no doubt that the President may lay down rules for the internal policy of his Administration, and may require his chief executive officers, dependent upon his pleasure for their terms of office, to conform to them or else to sever their official relations with him, and in that sense the rules relied on by the complainant were within his political and executive authority. But the enforcement of such rules is a matter between the President and the Cabinet, and not a matter for the Courts or one in which the complainant has any legal interest. All that I mean to state in this opinion is that the rules in question were not such as the Civil Service Act authorizes and do not derive efficacy from that act.

"I know of nothing more important to the interests of the country than the policy which the Civil Service legislation was intended to initiate and promote, and it is perhaps a matter of great regret that the act of January 16th, 1883—the Civil Service Act—has not gone further than it does. But it is my duty to construe it as it is.

"To sum up, I conclude that apart from the Civil Service Act the Postmaster General had the authority to remove the complainant from office at his pleasure; that this act makes no change in this respect, except to forbid removals for refusal to contribute to partisan objects; that the power given to the Commission and the President to establish rules to carry that act into effect does not authorize any rule which shall make a change in the law in this respect; and consequently that, even if this Court had jurisdiction in a case like the present one, the complainant is not entitled to the relief prayed."

It is probable that an appeal will be taken from the decision and it is said that ultimately the United States Supreme Court will be asked to pass on the question involved.

A FAR-REACHING EFFECT.

The decision rendered by Judge Cox will have a most far-reaching effect, and it was one of the matters discussed at the Cabinet meeting.

Beyond doubt, it will require the promulgation of new rules and the opinion of lawyers and prominent officials and that

Eyesight

Is of such great value that one ought to take more than ordinary precautions to guard against every possible trouble.

If you have even a remote suspicion that there is any trouble with your eyes it will be for your own best interests to have your vision tested and trouble, if any, removed.

Very simple troubles may develop serious results if not properly treated.

Ordinary failing eyesight receives our most careful attention, both as to glasses and frames.

It's just as important to have the right frame as the right glass, and from our large stock we can give you the correct thing in either Gold, Silver or Steel.

We make no charge for examinations, and if yours is a case requiring the services of an oculist we will frankly tell you so.

BALLENGER, Jeweler.

South Side Second Street.

It will necessitate a statement from the Attorney General in regard to the prerogatives of Cabinet officers as to the removals and transfers. It was stated after the Cabinet meeting that Attorney General McKenna was instructed to prepare such a statement and that before the President leaves town again that there will be an important document issued in regard to the Civil Service.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Resolutions of the Board of Education on the Death of Mr. H. H. Collins.

The Board of Education has adopted the following tribute to the late H. H. Collins:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in the dispensation of His providence, to remove by death from among us our esteemed fellow-member, Hiram H. Collins; therefore, be it

Resolved by this Board, That in his death we have lost an efficient and faithful member, always alive to and conscientious in the discharge of every duty as a member of this Board, looking to the best interests of the cause of education in this the beloved city of his early adoption;

That this city and community have lost a most worthy and valued citizen and a man of highest integrity, the Church to which he belonged an exemplary member, and his family, to whom this Board offers its sincere sympathy, a loving and faithful husband and a kind and indulgent father;

That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this Board, and that a copy be sent to the family, and that the press of the city be requested to publish them.

OPEN LETTER TO S. D. DUTCHER.

In THE LEDGER of September 14th a well-meaning friend has made some statements that if permitted to pass unchallenged will do not only you but the cause you represent an injury.

Being concerned about the cause, and not indifferent to your good as a Minister of the Gospel, though a stranger to you, is my only and all-sufficient apology for thus giving you an opportunity that you perhaps seek and otherwise would find it difficult to make to correct the over-zeal and under-wisdom of a friend.

First—Do you claim to be the "head" of the Church there?

Second—Can you claim or permit in any sense the word "seer" to be applied to you as a Bishop or Evangelist of that Church?

Third—Is it the "Church of the Disciples" or the "Church of Christ" worshipping at Maysville that you serve?

Fourth—The "combined powers of the old prophets" is a powerful combination for any one man to have. This is, of course, a human estimate of a warm friend who does not evince a very close acquaintanceship with their "powers" by spelling Naaman "Naham."

Believing that you would no more claim the first than you would endorse the last as a good spell of the leper General's name, I am your friend and the friend of the cause of Christ.

FRIDAY'S CASH SALE.

Huck Towels.

Twelve miles from Belfast is the castle of the late Marquis of Downshire Hill, which gives the town the name of Hillsborough. The town is a hive of thrift, its linen industry turning largely to Towels. The Hillsborough Company is famous for its Huckaback and Twilled Linen Towels. They are the same kind of intrinsic good values one gets under the "Old Bleach" label, that factory a dozen miles from Belfast in another direction. The Hillsborough Company's goods are grass bleached; no chemical rot has ever tainted their product. We made a cash deal on 200 Hillsborough Huck Towels, and the shipment will make Friday's Towel show and give Maysville the greatest Towel values we have offered in years. The Towels are all hemmed and some neat red borders. They are thirsty water soakers, 40 inches long, 21 inches wide. Careful housewives and hotel men who use liberal size Towels will make the most of this occasion. Price 10c.

Women's Hosiery

LOT No. 1—Loely Gauge Black Hose, improved toe, Beamsloft dye. The colors hold till the stocking wears out. Price regularly 35c.; price Friday 25c. Want to introduce them to the trade.
